

We'll take whatever you want to give except food or clothing

Teachers and students benefit when businesses and individuals donate items to From Crayons to Computers. ▶▶▶

Budgets are increasingly tight, but there are no price tags or cash registers at From Crayons to Computers. Everything is free for teachers in Chesterfield County Public Schools. Teachers visit the store and pick out whatever they need for their classrooms.

Donations come from small and large businesses, community groups and individuals. The inventory changes weekly depending on what is donated. Items include paper, computers, pencils, chairs, decorations, carpet squares, craft supplies, shelves and more. Whether items are new or used, they are welcome at From Crayons to Computers. The only items not accepted are food and clothing.

Donations to the store are tax-deductible.

In addition to making economic sense, donating to Chesterfield schools makes ecologic sense: Re-using and re-purposing items keeps them out of landfills.

So if you are replacing office furniture, clearing out a warehouse or de-cluttering, please call or e-mail From Crayons to Computers to schedule a drop-off or pickup.

Groups or individuals interested in community service are welcome to volunteer at From Crayons to Computers. Help is needed with data entry, stocking shelves, donation pickup and seasonal displays. Store hours are 2:30-5:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the school year.
